3.2.2. - REPORT OF ACTIVITY

1. Topic of the Workshop: - Role Play – Managerial Resilience based on Entrepreneurship Development.
2. Name of the Speaker: - Prof. Dr. Anand Gaikwad
3. Dates: - 18th & 19th May, 2022.
4. Report on Activity:

The Role play was conducted by in-house faculty on the topic from the course - 209 Start-up & New Venture Management. It was based on the hypothetical challenges faced by the different companies and learning how to recover quickly from the situation and bouncing back in today's world. This workshop was organized for the benefit of the MBA Semester II students. This workshop has helped the students to understand how to identify innovative solutions to solve real-life business & social problems.

The resource person, Prof. Dr. Anand Gaikwad briefed students about the activity and what is expected from them for the first day. Thereafter, students were grouped in seven different groups and asked them to assume that there is no demand in the market for the product / company. Students were supposed to have a study with the help of google and also have brain storming session among group members which includes CEO and departmental managers like HR, MKTG, Materials, Finance, R & D, Production etc. Students worked enthusiastically in these groups and prepared 'Strategy Documents' for recovering quickly from the bad situation. They were provided sufficient time for study and preparation. They were asked to give groupwise presentations on the next day. While giving the presentations they focussed on departmental strategies for a particular product. They added the unique features of the product with their group's creativity. They also created TV Commercial and Radio Jingle for the product with new features. All the group members enacted in the TV Commercial and Radio Jingle creatively and enthusiastically. Students enjoyed while performing a particular role given to them and learned how business houses face the challenges and come out with strategy for becoming successful.
